

Nutley Hall is a living & working community providing residential care & support (plus day-care) for 33 residents, and employs some 50 members of staff, many of them also residential.

It is a registered care home for adults with learning disabilities, with a craft centre and a lively cultural & social environment.

Nutley Hall is a non profit-making company, registered as a charity with the Charity Commissioners (no. 307023), and with the Care Quality Commission (CQC).

The Main House includes the Phoenix & Ashdown View households and there are four other residential houses.

Work takes place in our on-site workshops:

Bakery;	Weavery;
Woodwork;	Candle & Basket-making;
Kitchen,	Laundry

& in the Garden & Grounds & Ashdown Forest.

There are also adult education classes, movement, music and drama, and many social and cultural activities, with some of them – like horse-riding and swimming – outside Nutley Hall.

The community meeting centre and theatre is a specially designed hall known as “Orchard House”.

Nutley Hall is situated on the main A22 London to Eastbourne road in the centre of the village of Nutley, five miles north of Uckfield in East Sussex.

The lanes on each side of Nutley Hall lead down directly onto Ashdown Forest, where residents can enjoy walking.

Nutley Hall is home to people with a range of learning disabilities at different levels of need, and residents usually choose to stay a long time, often seeing Nutley Hall as their home.

Residents, both men and women, vary in age from the twenties to the Seventies.
